FACTUAL BACKGROUND

THE PURCHASE OF THE FIRST LINCOLN POLICY

10. Dr. Repicci is a highly respected and successful orthopedic surgeon practicing in Erie County. In the course of his professional activities Dr. Repicci was solicited by Defendant Jarvis in 2001 or 2002 for purposes of wealth advising and financial/estate planning.

11. At the time, Defendant Jarvis was a principal in Jarvis & Mandel LLC. Jarvis & Mandell LLC identified itself as providing Integrated Planning Solutions for high net worth individuals (Jarvis & Mandell LLC is currently inactive).

12. In a series of discussions and other communications Defendant Jarvis and the Repiccis discussed in great detail the Repicci family financial status and the family's long term goals. Defendant Jarvis repeatedly assured Dr. Repicci of his expertise and competency as a wealth advisor, financial advisor and estate planning advisor, with particular expertise working with medical professionals. He also assured Dr. Repicci that he would oversee and monitor any plan put into place and would continue to advise the Repicci family throughout the duration of any plan.

13. Eventually in late 2002, as part of a sophisticated wealth/estate planning plan proposed by Defendant Jarvis, the Repiccis were persuaded to purchase two high value life insurance policies (with both John and Lorraine Repicci covered by each policy) recommended by Defendant Jarvis with a total final value of approximately $14 million. One of the policies instituted was with Massachusetts Mutual Insurance Company ($4 million) and the other was with Lincoln Life & Annuity Company of New York ($10 million), Policy No. 7146026 (hereinafter "Lincoln Policy No. '026").

14. Dr. Repicci had consistently stated a desire that any insurance policies purchased be guaranteed and valid until age 100 and the Repiccis were assured by Defendant Jarvis that the policies were designed to last to at least age 100 for each of the insureds (who were aged 66 at the time) and that it was the most conservative insurance available with only top rated companies in each case. Moreover, Defendant Jarvis repeatedly assured the Repiccis that the policies were "guaranteed" and that if in the extremely remote and improbable event the policies failed to perform, there were reasonable options he would present that would retain the values of the investment.

15. In reliance on Defendant Jarvis' representations the Repeccis purchased the policies and paid for both policies in full in late 2002. The cost of the Lincoln policy was $600,000.

16. By correspondence from Defendant Jarvis dated March 6, 2014 (merely 22 years into a policy that had been guaranteed for 35 years), the Repiccis and the Lincoln Policy beneficiaries learned for the first time that there were significant distinctions between the Massachusetts Mutual policy and the Lincoln policy; that the Massachusetts Mutual policy was guaranteed and that, contrary to representations, Lincoln Policy No. '026 was not. They also learned for the first time that the Lincoln policy might not have the value that had been represented to them. The Massachusetts Mutual policy retained its full value.

17. In the Spring of 2015 Plaintiffs learned after independent review that Lincoln Policy No. '026 was valueless.

THE PURCHASE OF THE SECOND LINCOLN POLICY

18. Subsequent to the purchase of the life insurance policies in 2002, Defendant Jarvis continued to consult with the Repiccis and to propose wealth preservation strategies and plans.

19. In late 2006 the Repiccis were persuaded to purchase an additional Lincoln life insurance policy as part of another sophisticated plan. Lincoln Policy No. 7317144 (hereinafter "Lincoln Policy No. '144") came into effect on December 21, 2006 and was paid in full by January 2008. The cost of the policy was $480,000.

20. Defendant represented to the Repiccis that the policy "will guarantee $3,100,000 of death benefit if the two of you die now, in 10 years or in 45 years from now. This is level and there is no investment risk whatsoever".

21. By correspondence from Defendant Jarvis dated March 6, 2014, the Plaintiffs learned for the first time that Lincoln Policy No. '144 was not guaranteed and might not have the value that had been represented to them.

22. In the Spring of 2015 Plaintiffs learned after independent review that Lincoln Policy No. '144 had a value far less than even the original full purchase price and that it might become valueless absent significant additional payment of premiums.
